Information regarding permanent change of address

This form is intended for private individuals. Business customers shall use a particular form, see Bring.no.

Identity control

The form is to be handed in at a post office or in-store post office. Identity control will be done for the secure and essential identification of the Customer. Customers must provide the national identity number or date of birth, as well as family name and first names for all persons included in the order.

Valid pieces of identification are:

- Identity cards issued by Posten Norge
- Norwegian bank cards with Identity information
- Norwegian driving licences
- Norwegian passports, Immigrant's passports or refugee travel documents
- European identity cards
- Passports issued in foreigners' home country
- Residence permits for foreigners in Norway (Oppholdskort)

When identity control is done, the Post will send in the form for registration. A letter of confirmation will be sent to the customer's postal address.

Handling of personal information

Information is handled in accordance with the Personal Data Act. Post recipients may contact Customer Services in writing to ask for all information concerning their person in the Address Register to be sent to them and to have any errors corrected.

Address information will be used for the updating of private and official registers. This applies to registers in which the Customer is already listed. Post recipients may contact Customer Services in writing in order to place a reservation so that their address information will not be used in updating of other registers.

Conditions

The service is provided in accordance with the prevailing conditions, see posten.no.

Permanent change of address

Permanent change of address involves registration of new permanent postal address as well as redirection of post from a former address to a new address within Norway or abroad.

Redirection of post includes:

- Addressed letters and small packets up to 2 kilos
- Newspapers and periodicals in postal subscription (only within Norway)

Parcels can be redirected if the addressee asks for it. A fee for the redirection of a parcel will be charged upon delivery.

The following exceptions apply:

- Items with contents requiring a customs declaration (objects), will not be redirected to a foreign country.
- Items marked with «Elektronisk Adresseoppdatering» (EA) will not be redirected if the contract between the sender and the Post Office implies that there shall be no redirection of mail in connection with Permanent change of address.

Redirection can be ordered for a period of up to 14 months. When the redirecting period is expired, post addressed to the former address will be returned to sender.
