Stamp Program

There will be some changes to this year's stamp program.

The Olsenbanden 50th Anniversary issue has been moved forward from August to June, and the Norwegian Bicycles issue has been moved back from June to August. In addition, one of the stamps in the Harald Sohlberg 150 Years series in June will have the denomination NOK 45 due to the increase in stamp prices that goes into effect on 1 July. The updated stamp program is available below.

Dear Customer!

Everything is primed for a new stamp issue!

The first stamps in June were those in the Olsenbanden 50th Anniversary issue. The film is by far one of Norway's greatest cinema success stories, and in August it will celebrate the 50th anniversary of its premier. Egil Nyhus has designed the two wonderful stamps.

On 12–17 August the World Orienteering Championships will be held in Østfold. A special stamp for the championships is being issued already on 14 June. The stamp is also Norway's first orienteering stamp, and it was illustrated by Ragnar Aalbu.

Artist Harald Sohlberg's 150th anniversary is being celebrated this year. National Museum held a fantastic exhibition of Sohlberg's paintings already last year, and on 14 June two stamps are being issued for the anniversary. The motifs are two of Sohlberg's paintings from the city of Røros. Camilla Kvien Jensen designed the stamps, which in addition shows the Sohlberg's own self-portrait.

Just like in most of Norway, we will also soon be taking summer holiday. But we will be back in full force on 23 August with two stamp issues on the opening day of the stamp exhibition Nordia 2019 in Sarpsborg.

Kind regards,

Halvor Fastving
