

Last posting dates for parcels sent abroad – Christmas 2020

The last posting dates have been established in collaboration with the postal services of the respective countries in order to ensure that the Christmas parcels arrive by 24 December. The last posting dates are provided for guidance only - actual transport times will depend on the consignment method used and the country in which the recipient lives. The following list shows sending times from Oslo to most countries. In addition, up to two extra days should be allowed for customs clearance.
